

Technical Advisory Group (TAG) Member Roles and Responsibilities

Advisors: Develop the project work plan and oversee the research. Members may be from outside NHDOT.

Sponsor: NHDOT staff who saw the need for the research submitted it to the RAC.

Champion: NHDOT management who supports the research and is responsible for implementation.

Coordinator: Research Unit staff who monitors study progress; manages the contract (if needed); shares information with the TAG; and coordinates TAG activities.

Principal Investigator: Conducts the research and provides the project deliverables.